GLASSCOCK CORONER

APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR LEEDY TO FILL VACANCY.

DR. FITZHUGH TALKS PLAINLY.

CRITICISES DISGRACEFUL SCRAM-BLE FOR THE OFFICE.

Selection of Dr. Glasscock Will Widen the Breach in the Pusion Forces of Wyandotte County-He Was Alrendy a Pic-Enter.

Topcka, Kas., Feb. 15 - (Special.) Governor Leedy to-day appointed Dr. S. S. Glasscock, of Kansas City, Kas., coroner of Wyandotte county, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Coroner A. R. McLeod, last Saturday. Glasscock is a

The news of Dr. Glasscock's appoint ment to the position of coroner was not a surprise to many of the Populists or Democrats of Kansas City, Kas. It has been conceded all along by those on the inside that Dr. Glasscock would land the job. The other candidates will be disappointed, and the breach in the fusion renks will be widened.

Dr. S. S. Glasscock came to Kansas City, Kas., about six years ago from Excelsior Springs, Mo. He was raised on a farm near Excelsior Springs, and grad-uated from the Rush Medical school, of Chicago. He returned to Excelsior Springs and for a while was a partner of Dr. Fraker, of insurance fame. He is a Mason and a Bryan Democrat. Soon after he arrived on the Kansas side he was ap-pointed on the pension board by Presi-dent Cleveland, and has since served in that position.

pointed on the pension board by President Cleveland, and has since served in that position.

Dr. Thaddeus Fitzhugh, formerly postmaster of Kansas City, Kas., was one of the many aspirants for the job given Dr. Glasscock. He is disappointed, but not angry, because he did not get the position. However, he is very bitter in his denunciation of the actions of certain candidates, principally the successful one.

"I never saw such disgraceful conduct in all my life." said Dr. Fitzhugh yesterday, to a reporter for The Journal. "Dr. McLeod died Saturday, and early Surday morning candidates were scouring the city for indorsements for the position, Monday afternoon I decided to become a candidate for the place, and when I called on, my friends I was surprised to learn that nearly all of them had been seen Sunday by other candidates, and had either signed petitions or pledged them-

BRYAN'S COUSIN A CANDIDATE.

C. E. Jennings, of Salem, Ill., Wants to Go to Congress-He Is Now State's Attorney.

Salem, Ill., Feb. 15 .- State's Attorney C. E. Jennings, who came within two votes of securing the nomination for congress at the convention which named Jehu Baker, is an announced candidate for the same office. Mr. Jennings was urged by his Democratic friends to make the race two years ago, regardless of the action of the convention at Nashville, which named Baker, but fearing this action would elect Murphy refused to do so, and has thus placed himself under obligations to the Popullists, who could never have sent Baker to congress unaided by their allies, the Democrats. Mr. Jennings is a cousin of William Jennings Bryan, whose middle name was his mother's maiden name, she being a sister of Mr. Jenning's father. Mr. Jennings is a son-in-law of General James S. Martin, of this city, ex-chairman of the Republican state central committee. Mr. Jennings has been state's attorney of this county for nearly ten years, and was the law partner of Judge Silas L, Bryan, father of W. J. Bryan, at the death of the distinguished judge. E. WAS A LIBERAL SCIENTIST.

Leading Demonstrator of the Sect Dies of Mensies, Refusing Medteal Treatment. Miss Isabella Franklin Jones, a leading nember of the Unity Liberal Scientist congregation, which holds its meetings in the Hall building, died yesterday at the home of Thomas W. Gilruth, 1018 West Twenty-first street, of measles. Miss Jones was 37 years old, and came to this city as a "demonstrator" two months ago. She was an active Liberal Scientist, and had been an active Liberal Scientist, and had been quite a leader in spreading the belief in Chicago, where she lived before coming to this city. Two weeks ago she was taken ill. A number of advanced members of the Liberal Scientist congregation visited her, but their influence failed to dispel her ill-

She grew rapidly worse and Mr. Gilruth called Dr. J. K. Boland to attend her.
He diagnosed her case and prescribed the proper medicine, but it was only after considerable argument on the part of Mr. Gilruth that she consented to take the first dose of medicine. She then refused to follow the doctor's directions further. She continued to fall rapidly until her death yesterday morning. Dr. Boland refused to sign the death certificate and the coroner was notified. He will probably hold an inquest. The Laberal Scientists are in no way connected with the Christian Scientists.

Through a series of agencies, each of which carried the alarm nearer the seat of trouble, a fire at the Water Works building, Sixth and Walnut streets, was prevented vesterday about 1 o'clock. The blaze startvesterday about 1 o'clock. The blaze started on the roof near the chimney and was first seen by one of the waiters at the Midland dining room. He telephoned to the office and a messenger boy was sent to the Water Works building to notify the occupants of their danger. The elevator boy heard of the fire and told the engineer and he extinguished the blaze with a bucket of water. There was no loss and the fire department was not called out. The occupants of the big building never dreamed of their danger.

Voman Who Gave Up Property Worth $6,000 to Save Her Lover Suing to Recover It.

Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 15.-A case now in progress in the circuit court of this city reveals a romantic story, and may cast light now on events which caused a sensation in business circles of Cleveland, O., a few years ago. Miss Olga Greenwalt, of this city, the very pretty daughter of one of the pioneer business men and capitalists of Bloomington, and the heiress to one-fifth of the large estate of her father, became engaged to J. H. Whitney, of Cleveland, a bookkeeper for Daykin Bros., plumbers, of that city. In 1893 Daykin Bros., store burned, and before the firm's books were examined Whitney disappeared. It was alleged he was an embezzler to the extent of $10,000, and it was soon discovered that he had gone to Honolulu. It is alleged that Miss Greenwalt, in order to save her fiance from prosecution, transferred property worth $6,000 to make good Whitney's alleged shortage. Miss Greenwalt is said to have followed Whitney to Honolulu. It is charged in the present suit that Miss Greenwalt was coerced into paying Whitney's debt, under fear of his going to the penitentiary. The trustee of her property, Peter Whitmer, of Bloomington, refused to turn her property over, and Thomas Paigne, representing Daykin Bros., began suit to obtain possession. A counter suit has now been begun to determine ownership and charging fraud and conspiracy in getting the assignment from Miss Greenwalt. Among other allegations is one that Whitney never was an embezzler. After all Miss Greenwalt's devotion to Whitney, she did not become his wife. Two years ago she married J. H. Hierony, mous, a Peoria, Ill., brewer, who is now here with her assisting in prosecuting the suit. eveals a romantic story, and may cast with her assisting in prosecuting th form a general combination.

The idea suggested is to get as many of the conveniently located mills as possible to unite in one central organization with the definite purpose in view of protecting their field of operations in such a way as may be deemed most advisable.

Since the meeting of the Tin Plate Makers' Association of the United States at Columbus, O., December 30, 1897, the scheme of forming a central combination has been growing steadily. Committees appointed at that meeting have had several conferences and efforts have been made to arouse an that meeting have had several conferences and efforts have been made to arouse an Eastern sentiment in favor of such a com-bination as is proposed. The coming of the "Mysterious Mr. Bugle" to the Coates next week is being looked forward to as one of the great comedy treats of the season. One of the funniest incidents in the play is said to be a woeful attempt of the heroine to smoke a cigar. That she is forced to do so is evolved from a perfectly plausible situation, and is carried out in the best spirit of legitimate farce. Her sweetheart calls upon her and finds a lighted cigar which has bean left there by her cousin. She dare not tell him of her visitor, fearing to aggravate his jealous indignation, and her only way to explain away the cigar is to tell him the awful fib that ioneliness has driven her to smoke. To test her truthfulness he makes her smoke a fresh cigar, and the result is amusing to a degree. The way this scene is handled by Miss Gretchen Lyons and Joseph Holland is said to insure a remembrance of the "Mysterious Mr. Bugle" not easy to dispel.

Two hours of laughter, a solid chunk of fun. Don't miss the "New Woman" at Metropolitan hall Friday night, given under the auspices of the Ladies' Good Will So-day the newspapers told the story of a plucky woman band from drowning on the rock bound Atlantic coast. There are other dangers be-side that of drownshrewd woman may, by a little diplomacy, save her husband. Men are proverbially reckless about their health. They do not think it worth while to pay any heed to a slight indigestion, a trifling bilious attack, a little nervousness or sleeplessness, or a small loss of appetite. The first they know they have dyspepsia, liver complaint, maiaria, rheumatism, nervous prostration or deadly consumption. Even then they are prone to neglect their trouble until it is too late.

neglect their trouble until it is too late.

A wise wife will assume guardianship of her husband's health. She will always have at hand a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When her husband feels out of sorts she will see that he takes feels out of sorts she will see that he takes it. It makes the appetite keen, the digestion perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves steady. It builds firm flesh, strong muscles, and healthy nerve tissues. It cures dyspepsia, liver complaint, malaria, rheumatism and nervous prostration. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. An honest dealer will always give you what you ask for.

you what you ask for. "I was a sufferer from malaria," writes Mr. R. D. Hill, of Zanto, Louisa Co., Va. "Two doctors failed to cure me. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in connection with his 'Pleasant Pellets,' and was cured. I can now do as good a day's work as any man."

now do as good a day's work as any man."

Constipation often causes sickness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is agentle laxative and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe. They are tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, in little vials. Druggists sell them and have nothing else "just as good." They regulate the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.
